Jay Young, Esq. Las Vegas, Nevada

Education

- BS, Brigham Young University, Political Science
- JD, J. Reuben Clark Law School, Brigham Young University
- Certificate of ADR Training, J. Reuben Clark Law School, Brigham Young University
- Better Business Bureau System Arbitrator training

ADR Experience

Jay Young has mediated and arbitrated numerous cases involving personal injury, commercial litigation, and general civil matters. He is a NITA Advanced Advocate program graduate, indicating that he has trial advocacy training at the highest level. His attention to detail and experience as a trial attorney give him unique insight into the pressures on litigants and the relative strengths and weaknesses of cases. These attributes are appreciated both by attorneys and their clients, who count his experience in the courtroom and as an arbitrator, as key to his ability to resolve and/or decide difficult matters.

Mr. Young is a Panel Arbitrator in the 8th Judicial District Court of Clark County Nevada. He is also a Nevada Better Business Bureau Auto Line Arbitrator.

Professional Experience

Mr. Young has been a litigator since 1994. He represents plaintiffs and defendants in commercial, real estate, personal injury, and employment litigation cases. Moreover, he has experience representing debtors, creditors, and trustees in bankruptcy matters. Mr. Young is a frequent lecturer on landlord/tenant law, and authored a law review article on The Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing in Nevada. He also co-authored a chapter of the Nevada Civil Practice Manual on Pre-judgment Remedies.

Mr. Young has served as an adjunct professor, teaching constitutional law. He volunteers as a Boy Scout leader and a little league baseball coach. Avocationally, Mr. Young is a Grammy-award winning vocalist.
